SOME OF THE DIFFICULTIES IN GEITING THE MAIL FROM THE NORTH .- The which arrived here vesterday at 1:50 P. M. on the Fredericksburg road brought in on the Fredericksburg road brought in about seven thousand pounds of mail matter, principally letters, which had accumulated in Washington since last Friday. This ble this evening at 8 o'clock. nall was carried from Washington to Alexindria in wagons, and from thence on by rail. The train which arrived here last night at 12 elock brought another large instalment, instuding the New York papers of yesterday. During the continuance of the tee-blockade in the Potomac the mails for the South will the markets was deteafed. The impression created that Mr. T. H. Ellett, one of the representatives from Monroe Ward, was be earried to Alexandria over the Aque duct bridge in wagons and via Shepherd by boat. After the river is clear of ice and until the bridge is repaired it will be car-ried over to Alexandria from Washington erroneous. Mr. Ellett simply reported it Market, of which he is the efficient chair by the Potomac Ferry Company. No leans were allowed to go over the Georgetown squedcet bridge on Saturday, and as soon man. known printer, formerly of this city but now of New York, is here on a visit to friends. Mr. Fleg had the misfortune, a permission was granted Sunday the mailvere taken over and forwarded Monday. The roads are in a terrible condition around to the south side of the river.

RICHMOND, FREDERICKSBURG AND POTOMAC RAILBOAD TRAINS .- The trains leaving Rich mond at 5:05 A. M. and arriving at 2:28 P. M. baying been temporarily suspended be tween Quantico and Washington, are like-wise suspended on this road. No freights received for points north of Quantico. Local freight trains for the present leave Richmond on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, and return on the alternate days.

THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO LINE TO THE NORTH.-The Chesapeake and Ohio and the Virginia Midland railways have established ommunication at Alexandria by ferry-boat with Washington, and passengers can now go through without detention at Alexandria.

TRAINS TO NEW CANTON.-It is expected that after Thursday passenger and freight and had been in debeate health several days, trains on the Richmond and Alleghany rail-PETERSBURG MAIL .- Mr. Khne, the ac-
